Tango lessons, practicas, and milongas take place at Voukelari. Participants can stay at the Voukelari. This is highly recommended. Susanne will collect all the information from participants and pass it on to Voukelari.

Voukelari has 9 rooms (double rooms, most with a third bed), and one house (Olive House) with 2 bedrooms each with en-suite bathrooms, and a living room/ kitchen with washing machine. All rooms have a balcony or terrace, mostly with sea view. Rooms at Voukelari are allocated according to participants' wishes and in order of registration and payment of the non-refundable reservation fee. Once Voukelari is full, participants can find accommodation in adjacent houses, or this can be arranged via Voukelari.

Single rooms are double rooms for single occupancy. Participants who organise their own accommodation will be charged €50 per person per week by Voukelari for the use of their facilities. This fee is payable directly to Voukelari on the 1st day. Also for private lessons, an extra fee of €5 per lesson is payable to Voukelari.

Breakfast and dinners are served at Voukelari on the terrace overlooking the sea. This also applies if you stay at Amalia, Nostalgia, or Pelagos, if arranged by Voukelari. The food consists of local products, deliciously prepared, some of it from own organic cultivation.

Breakfast: coffee, tea, mountain tea, freshly squeezed fruit juice, milk, Greek yoghurt, mountain honey, homemade jams, butter, local cheeses, ham, eggs (fried, scrambled, omelette, boiled), muesli, tomatoes, cucumber, olives, cakes, fruit, bread, pastries, etc.

Dinner: 5 starters, vegetables, fish or meat, dessert (all very tasty, varied and better than in any restaurant) - there is plenty of choice for vegetarians.

Address: Souda 74060, Plakiás, Rethymno (province). The village of Plakiás is 2.5km away. There you will find shops for daily needs and a cash machine at the large car park.
